Main Street Monday!

Celebrate Earth Day with Bluegrass Greensource!

Saturday, April 22, 2017

We had a great day at the Capitol last week! In this edition you will see a few photos from the event along with a few from our educational day that was held on Thursday.

At Bluegrass Greensource, we are getting ready for Earth Day! Yes, we know that it is only February, but April is just around the corner! Our annual Earth Day event is Main Street Clean Sweep, a community-led litter clean-up throughout our 20-county service area.

Every year volunteers, community groups, families, churches, and local governments get together to clean-up 20 communities around the Bluegrass. In 2016, 1,000 volunteers came together in 22 Central Kentucky communities to pick up 515 bags of litter, culminating in over FOUR TONS of waste!

This year Main Street Clean Sweep is Saturday, April 22nd, and we are looking for volunteers all across the Bluegrass to get involved in cleaning up their communities!

Do you know of an area in your community that could really use some TLC? Want to get involved? For more information on Main Street Clean Sweep, click here, or send an email to Ashley@bggreensource.org

Executive director position in Madison, Indiana, one of the original Main Street communities—a beautiful, quintessential Midwestern Main Street town with vibrant retail district and robust tourism market and arts district. Excellent oral and written communication skills essential; must enjoy working with people and managing a strong pool of volunteers. Bachelor's degree or equivalent work experience preferred. Previous Main Street, downtown development, or non-profit management experience a plus. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Send cover letter and resume no later than February 28th to madisonmainstreetprogram@gmail.com.

It's OFFICIAL

Heart of Danville Main Street Program names new director

DANVILLE, Ky. — The Heart of Danville Main Street Program recently named Interim Director, and former Project Manager, Nicholas Wade as the new Executive Director of the organization.

Wade, a Danville native, graduated from Boyle County High School in 2008. He earned two degrees at Eastern Kentucky University, a bachelor's in Public Relations and a master's in Student Personnel Services in Higher Education, before working remotely as an associate publicist for a PR firm out of Nashville.

In 2013, he began volunteering with the Heart of Danville, and in February 2016 he officially joined the organization as project manager. In that role he was responsible for coordinating all Heart of Danville events, overseeing the annual membership drive and all forms of communication and public relations.

Throughout 2016, Wade aided the Heart of Danville in planning several key community events, including the Great American Brass Band Festival and the Kentucky State BBQ Festival. He also contributed to revamping the organization's marketing and communications efforts.

Since October 2016, Wade has served as Interim Director following the departure of previous Executive Director Bethany Rogers.

"During Nick's time at the Heart of Danville, he has impressed me, the Board and the community with his drive, his passion for Main Street and our entire community," said Valery McMann, chair of the Heart of Danville Board of Directors. "We look forward to seeing the growth of our organization under his continued leadership."

Former Madisonville Main Street director and community development director will be the new city manager in Paris, KY beginning March 6th.

We welcome him to central KY !
